Over/Under NFL moneyline odds ask bettors to pick the winner of the game. Matchup Moneyline Odds San Francisco 49ers +110 Kansas City Chiefs -130 If a game's combined projected score is 53 points, bettors can either place a bet that the final score will go Over the 53-point number or stay Under that total.

Parlays: Bigger payouts, bigger risks

If one or more bets lose, the whole parlay loses.

If you like the Under for a game and see a total getting bigger closer to game day, you may want to wait until just before kickoff to place your bet and see how high the total will climb, giving you a better number for your Under opinion. 9 points.

Keeping track of who's in and out is vital when learning how to bet on NFL spreads and totals.
