Manchester City are the most recent winners in 2023 and have now been champions in five of the last six seasons.

The Gunners's Arsene Wenger holds the record for most wins as manager, with seven, and Ashley Cole's seven titles with Arsenal and Chelsea make him the most decorated player in the competition's rich history.

It all kicks off on 20th July 2023 in Auckland and finishes on 20th August 2023 at the Sydney Olympic Park.

Manchester City are the defending champion but Arsenal, Newcastle, Manchester United and Liverpool all hope to be in the hunt, with Chelsea and Tottenham among the teams hoping to improve under new managers.

Most people know this from watching games, but few understand how this biases the sports betting public.

You can use this to help you make more money over time.

The problem with betting on games with your favorite team playing is that it's hard to be unbiased.

But when you lose, the sportsbook gets the amount they risked paying out as well as the extra amount you had to risk.

The perfect situation for a sportsbook is to have the exact same amount wagered on each side of every game.

Unless a game goes extra innings, there are only nine innings.

But they rarely get equal action on both sides of a game.

One of the games is a big rivalry that traditionally creates half of the total action the book takes in for the day.
